CINCINNATI STAR CLUB.

Opening of the Base-ball Grounds Saturday.
The Star Base-ball Grounds were formally opened Saturday afternoon for the reception of the Club Directors, the press and a few invited guests.

After showing the party over the grounds and pointing out the improvements, which are numerous, President Justus Thorne, who "manned the little game," escorted the entire party to the Club House, where a sumptuous repast was set. Mummy's Extra Dry flowed freely, and after the conclusion of the feast Mr. Thorne made a few remarks explanatory of the reasons why the press had been invited to join the Directors in the "house warming," and at the close of the Cincinnati Ball Club and "The Press" were offered and accepted. After more important speeches the assembly adjourned, well pleased with the programme that had been carried out.

The grounds this season are at the foot of Bank street, and are pronounced by many professional ball men to be the finest in the country. Our own knowledge isn't very extensive, but we think it would be next to impossible to find a ball field to surpass ours in any respect.

The estimate of seating capacity has been variously placed at from 3,500 to 4,100 persons, and this is not including the "bull pen," which is situated away off to the right on a line with "first base," which is capable of seating several hundred more. The length of the west pavilion has been increased by an addition of 50 feet, making the total 163 feet. Along the eaves, as a further protection from the sun, an extension of some 8 feet has been made.

Pliable backs have been furnished the seats in the grand stand and each seat numbered, so that it may be reserved in the same manner as a chair in the theater. There are a few less than 600 of these seats in the stand. The arrangements for the press are excellent. A first-class substitute for a desk is provided. The handsome field has been rolled and sodded for thirty feet outside the diamond. Directly under the grand stand is the Directors' room, a cozy little apartment, which has been neatly carpeted and furnished by Vice President Henderson.

The lunch was set by Mr. Mark Wallace. Besides President Thorne and Vice President Henderson, the following were included in the number present: Secretary, C. T. Blackburn; Treasurer, George Heran-court; Directors, George W. Smith, John Graybehl, and S. J. Mulvihill, Judge Wilson, Lou Heran-court, and representatives of the Enquirer, Times, Star, and Gazette.

The new grounds are open to-day and will be open to-morrow for the inspection of visitors. The sale of season tickets will commence to-morrow morning at Hawley's. This should be remembered and the sale attended.

Six of the players for this season, including Captain Clapp, Manson, Carpenter, Leonard, Manning, are now in the city, and the rest of the nine will be here by Thursday—the beginning of their contract for 1880.

THE WIDOWS' HOME FESTIVAL.

Completing the Preparations—An Attractive Series of Entertainments—Notes of Progress, Etc.

Anything can appeal to the sympathies of the whole people it surely is the endowment of the home for the aged homeless widows. This, in short, is the object for which the magnificent series of entertainments running through a week that is to be given at the Music Hall, commencing to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock and extending to Saturday night, inclusive. We have given in brief the programme of the varied series of amusements that the cultivated ladies of Cincinnati have prepared, and will conduct to a successful finale at the Hall during the remainder of this week. To undertake to speak of all that is being prepared would exceed the limits of our paper, but the following brief summary will give an idea of the promised treat:

At 6 o'clock the doors of the large hall will be opened to visitors, and the ceremonies will be inaugurated by a brief prayer by Rev. J. W. Pratt, D.D., and a short address by Mr. Rufus King.

To accommodate such as desire to lunch in the city on that evening the supper-room in the Floral Hall will be opened at 6 o'clock, where a substantial meal may be had at a reasonable price by any one wishing.

The "Yankee Kitchen" is one of the special features of attraction, and is in charge of a committee of ladies of the West End, Walnut Hills, Covington and Columbia; Mrs. George F. Ireland is Chairman of this Committee.

Mrs. Ludwig has charge of the decorations in Floral Hall.

The Gas Company donate for the illumination of the Main Hall during the festival a huge dragon six feet high and ten long, together with three large crescents.

Mrs. Wm. C. Hull will preside at a flower stand at the Mt. Auburn ladies provide in addition to their regular booth.

Miss Grace Irwin, of Avondale, will be assisted at the paper booth by the Misses Rule, Ware, Bell, Pearce, Bishop, Clark, Harvey, Roberts and Wessel, and Messrs. Irwin, Chatfield, Kemper, Batchelder and Burkhardt.

The Oriental Bazaar is to be one of the most unique and attractive features of their display. The ladies will be attired in Oriental costumes, will serve the fragrant Bazaar with a wifery not attainable outside the Flowery Kingdom by the light of Chinese lanterns, and possibly the conversation will be carried on in broken Chinese.

The picturesque costumes of Tunis, Arabia, Mexico, Japan, Egypt and Persia, will be seen until the visitor will involuntarily inquire for Lalla Rookh, the Princess Scheherazade, and the nearest road to Bagdad, as he lingers.

The committee in charge of the booth consist of these ladies and gentlemen:

Mrs. Col. L. M. Dayton, Chairman; Mrs. N. H. McLean, Mrs. Dr. Murphy, Mrs. Gen. August Mrs. S. S. Guest, Mrs. E. P. Emery, Mrs. J. H. Bugler, Mrs. J. W. Herron, Mrs. W. B. Hazen, Mrs. Gordon Shillito, Mrs. Chas. T. Gibson, Miss Lehman, Miss Lehman, Miss Woolley, Miss Dandridge, Misses A. and S. Sherlock, Miss Fox, Miss West, Miss McAlpin, Miss Halstead, Miss Andrews, Miss Eaton, Miss Mary Andrews, Miss Jewett, Miss Stettinius, Miss Neff, Miss Galtner, Miss Irwin, Miss Eckstein, Miss James, Miss Finley, Miss Bates, Miss Edia Fox and Miss Minnie Neff, Gen. Augur, Major Russell, Col. Glenn, Lieut. Buck, Lieut. Augur, Mr. Howard Winslow, Mr. J. Ray, Mr. J. M. Foster, Mr. M. Chatfield, Mr. Hulbert, Mr. W. Mitchell, Mr. F. Mitchell, Mr. Harry Woods, Mr. John Dudley and Mr. Arthur Stem.

In its equipment the Chairman and Mrs. McLean, who accompanied her to New York for that special purpose, spared neither pains nor money. It will be a sight in itself, and will be the very first visited upon entrance, for it occupies the space between the side doors.

Mrs. Taft is Chairman of the Refreshment Committee, and is everywhere at once—or would like to be.

Mrs. A. Goodman and Miss Wilson, of Walnut Hills, will be in charge of a Swiss cottage for the sale of ice cream. Here the ladies of the Fifth Presbyterian Church have a champagne luncheon for those who do not wish a full supper.

The ladies who propose to assist in the Yankee Kitchen are: Mrs. James Sherwood, Mrs. Hy. DeCamp, Mrs. J. Mears, Miss Ida and Miss Effie Spooner, Miss Lily Fox, Miss Lucy Crofton, Miss Kate Eddy, a New Hampshire visitor in the city; Miss Addie Aldrich, Miss Fannie and Miss Clara Roberts, Miss Jennie Lockard, Miss Blanche Mulgane, Miss Belle Dalton, Miss Mary Belle Resor, Miss Hattie Smith, and Miss Louie Ireton.

On Wednesday evening, at the "kitchen," scenes will be given from "Widow Bedott," in which a number of the old members of the Shakespeare and Davenport Clubs will take part.

The committee on Entertainment have about completed their programme. These entertainments will be given from the stage, commencing at 9 o'clock and lasting one hour. On Tuesday evening the announced "Art Exhibition" will take place. The Young Men's Gymnasium Association has prepared the following interesting programme of athletic exercises for Wednesday evening:

Flying rings—A. F. Kelroy, W. H. Menzies, Charles Baer, M. Coburn, and Arthur Cutter.

Horizontal bar—W. H. Wedgewood, P. Grady, W. H. Hersh (clown), Menzies and Cutter.

Tumbling—Chris. Kramig, Geo. Hasselbach, Lon. Seidenbush, Lincoln Hall, Clifford Hall, Wedgewood and Grady.

Leaping—Full class.

Specialties—G. A. Carnahan, clubs: Cannon and Coburn, Spanish stick exercises; Henry Leussing, health lift (for record).

Tug of war—Capt. Cannon (red) and Capt. Leussing (white) toss up and choose teams from class.

On Thursday evening Mr. George E. Whiting will preside at the great organ in an interesting programme.

On Friday evening Theodore Thomas has donated his services and those of his superb orchestra. The following popular programme will be rendered:

March—"La Avanti!".....Gungl

Overture—"Stradella".....Schubert

Waltz—"Wiener Fresken".....Strauss

Ballet Procession—"Lohengrin".....Wagner

Ballet Music—"Fenomeno".....Rubinstein

Intermission.

Overture—"Fa Diavolo!".....Auber

"Are Maria".....Schubert

Polka Mazurka—"Devil's Burning Needle".....Strauss

Polka Schnell—"Jocus".....Strauss

Ballet Music—"Rienzi".....Wagner

The last of the entertainments on Saturday afternoon will be the children's Maypole dance.

Professors and Madame Wiethoff have succeeded admirably in their work. Miss May Rodgers, of Covington, is to be Queen of May. This will be one of the most novel of the series, and it will certainly please the little ones, for whose especial benefit it has been devised. Professor and Madame Wiethoff have been in charge of the rehearsal, and by this time their pupils are in excellent drill. Miss May Rodgers, of Covington, will be the "Queen of May." Her "Maids of Honor" will be Misses Carrie Kemper, Augusta Cushman, Jessie Carter, Pearl Means, Edith Lowrey, and Mattie Vance. Miss Laura McDonald will be the "Floral Queen," surrounded by her ladies, Misses Lizzie Woods, May Guthrie, Florence Webb, Hettie Johnson, Grace Weitzel, Mary Cadwallader and Teresa Donahue. The Queen's pages will be Masters Bertie Cox and Willie Symms. The crown and scepter bearers will be Masters Morris Cadwallader and Stanley Lawson. Master Guy Mallon will occupy the exalted position of Herald to the Queen. Miss Anna Jones as "Spring," Miss Daisy Spence as "Summer," Miss Nellie Mansmaker as "Autumn," and Miss Mamie Shoemaker as "Winter," will represent the "Four Seasons." Masters Andrew Ather-ton, Vernon Ewan, Fred. Laidley, Burt Hollister, Harlan Doherty, Magnus Tate, Charley Cavagna, Louis Rutherford, Charlie Jones and Harry Buckner are to be the Queen's Guardsmen. In addition to the Maypole dancers, Misses Edith Wilson, Tiny Carter, Louise Dietrich, Belle Andrews, Carrie Brooks, Florence Rodgers, Jennie Trevor, May Jeffras, Mamie McDonald, Pearl Evans, Lena Cadwallader, Eunice Thoms, Daisy Done and Maggie Andrews, there will be some forty other children who will participate in the grand marches.

Miss Kate Handy is to be Queen of the Gypsies at their encampment in Horticultural Hall.

To-night there will be a "parlor musicale" at the residence of Hon. E. A. Ferguson, corner of Freeman and Dayton streets, for the benefit of the West End table. The programme embraces selections by some of the best professional, as well as amateur, talent in the city. The following ladies and gentlemen have kindly volunteered their services: Miss Dra Hennings, Miss Ruth Jones, Miss Emma Pumphrey, Mrs. Nettie Gordon Grose, Mrs. George D. Newhall, Mrs. W. H. Coddington, Mr. J. H. Shonacker, T. J. Sullivan, George D. Newhall and George A. Bowen.

This evening at Clifton Hall an entertainment will also be given for the benefit of the Clifton table. The programme includes the comic opera, "My Walking Photograph, or That Husband of Mine," in which Miss May Donnelly and Mr. Will Stewart will assume the characters of Mrs. Richard Dubson and Mr. Richard Dubson. Miss M. E. Setcwell will give a selection of her excellent readings and recitations, and Gumbert's "Bird Song" will be sung by Miss Annie Sherlock. Mr. W. Sterling is also announced for a piano solo. The entertainment will conclude with the comedy farce of "Mr. and Mrs. Pillicody," with the following excellent cast: John Peter Pillicody—Mr. Chas. F. McLean, Capt. O'Scullie—Mr. Geo. Pohlman, Mrs. John Peter Pillicody—Mrs. Paul M. O'Scullie—Miss Mary Smith, Sarah Blunt—Miss May Donnelly.

Easter Monday Entertainments.

The Knights of St. Martin, of Cincinnati, will give a grand reception this evening at Mozart Hall. The entertainments given by this Society have always been of the most refined kind, and the one to-night will not be behind the past ones. There will also be a badge presentation to Capt. Wm. Bunker.

A grand ball will be given this evening at the Bellevue House.

The Cincinnati Horse-shoers Association give a ball to-night at Hibernian Hall, Ninth and Plum streets.

The ladies of the Odd Fellow Saengerchor give a leap year calico hop at Washington Platform to-night.

The Buckeye Club give a select entertainment to-night in the old Maennerchor Hall.

The Druid Saengerchor will give a hop this evening at Tivoli Hall.

The Cincinnati Maennerchor close their season to-night with a grand ball.

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Senate not in session.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Resolutions were adopted calling on the Secretary of the Interior for any information as to any frauds or corrupt practices on the part of any employees of the Indian Service since the 1st of July, 1877, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for a detailed statement of the amount of bonds purchased by the Treasury between the 1st of January, 1844, and the 1st of January, 1880, setting forth the date and amount of each purchase, etc.

Various bills were received and referred and the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill. The bill was read by sections for amendments. The motion was offered to strike out the clause appropriating $20,000 for Charge d'Affaires ad interim and diplomatic officers abroad.

Pending a vote the committee rose and the House adjourned.
